

MATT GLOWACKI

In Matt's professional career as a disability speaker and advocate, he has delivered his messages to over a million people at hundreds of regional and national conventions, along with two sitting presidents of the United States.

In addition to presenting for a variety of corporate events and trainings, Matt currently serves as the DE&I Director for the Wisconsin State Council of the Society for Human Resource Management. He also helps out as the President Elect, the Program Chair, and the DE&I Committee Chair; of the Jefferson County Chapter of the Human Resource Management Association.

He was also a member of the State of Wisconsin's Partners in Policy Making for People with Disabilities Council, and was selected for and served on, the State of Wisconsin's Governor's Rehabilitation Council for the Department of Vocational Rehabilitation, the Wisconsin Easter Seal's State Board, and the University of Wisconsin- Whitewater's College of Arts and Communication Dean's Advisory Board.

In 2017, he published his first book, Able-Bodied Like Me. Reviewed by Kirkus as a, "Perceptive discussion of disability and bias."